MEDIA RELEASE

SHINE for Kids celebrate their 25th Anniversary with a Gala Dinner with a Circus Theme to bring out the child in all of us!

SHINE for Kids Co-operative Ltd - formally known as Children of Prisoners' Support Group (COPSG), have been providing programs and support to the children, and families, of prisoners for over 25 years. This year they are celebrating their 25th Anniversary with a Gala Dinner on Thursday 11 October.

The dinner will be held at Doltone House, Pyrmont Point with a circus theme to bring out the child in all of us! Party Band the Enormous Horns will perform along with the Sydney Youth Orchestra. Guests will be hosted by comedian – Anthony Ackroyd in his role as Ring Master for the evening.

On average they assist over 1,500 children per year in NSW. Children of prisoners, face unique challenges that can leave them traumatised, stigmatised and isolated. These children are disadvantaged through no fault of their own. SHINE for Kids programs are designed to address the specific needs of these children and their families to help them cope with their world.

Their 25th Anniversary Gala Dinner will raise much needed funds for SHINE for Kids services and programs for these children of prisoners. And of course be a great night out!

To book your table, please contact SHINE for Kids on (02) 9714 3000.
